Kidnapers Hold St. Paul Man For $200,000 Ransom

WEALTHY BANKERS SON HELD CAPTIVE

Life Of Edward Bremer Is Threatened If Ransom Is Not Paid

(International News Service)
ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 19.—Heeding the fearful plea of the missing man's aged father, authorities today suspended their search for the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy broker, to give intermediaries free rein in arranging the $200,000 ransom payment demanded.

Federal department of justice operatives and police reluctantly obeyed the request of Adolph Bremer, the father, who asked that they "make no move that would endanger Edward's life."

The elder Bremer, a leader in Minnesota Democracy and a personal friend of President Roosevelt, is part owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company here. The Bremer family is one of the wealthiest in St. Paul.

Contact Made
Bremer's request was regarded as a definite indication that negotiators had established definite contact with the kidnaping gang and that payment of the staggering ransom was imminent.

An invalid, the elder Bremer was keeping an almost ceaseless vigil at his spacious home here, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Louise Bremer. Close friends of the family admitted that the wealthy brewer's magnate was extremely apprehensive of the safety of his 37-year-old son, whose life has been threatened unless the ransom demands are met.

Department of justice agents, hurriedly dispatched here when the kidnaping was disclosed, augmented the force of city police and sleuths of the state department of criminal apprehension.

Proof that the Bremer family was ready and willing to pay the ransom was contained in a brief classified advertisement carried in a Minneapolis daily paper, which read: "We are ready. Alice."

PA NEW OBSERVES

A truck load of "hogs", probably 200 in number, this morning, attracted much attention on East Washington street.

The roof of the city toolhouse on Croton avenue is getting a thorough repair job this week. Pa New has seen men working on the job every day.

Inspection stations are busy again examining cars for the present inspection period. Most of the machines require no repairs, a local garage owner tells Pa New. This is due, in part, to motorists keeping their cars in A-1 condition since the inspection sticker edict was inserted into the motor code the garage owner explained.

Among the things being done under the CWA here, is the inspection of cellars in the downtown district for fire hazards. A group of a half dozen men is employed at the job, looking through the cellars in the business section.

Foley was convicted of two charges, one of assaulting a little girl, and another of an attempt upon a young woman.

He was tried before Judge James A. Chambers on the first charge on which he was sentenced from 5 to 10 years in the penitentiary. ## Seven Prisoners Escape In Kansas From State Prison

Seven Go Over Wall At Prison After Guard Is Overpowered

GUARDS FIRE ON FLEEING CONVICTS

Bob Brady And Jim Clark, Desperadoes, Lead Outbreak; Poses Formed

(International News Service)

LANSING, Kans., Jan. 19.—Seven convicts in the Kansas state penitentiary here escaped today by going over the south wall under heavy gunfire from guards.

Bob Brady and Jim Clark, both life termers and classed as dangerous men, were in the group. Brady and Clark figured in a spectacular break last Memorial Day when they and nine others escaped after kidnaping the warden.

The break occurred shortly after Brady and Clark had overpowered a relief guard, Clyde Deere, who was standing guard while the two prisoners were cleaning up "punishment hall," a block of solitary cells.

Are Fired Upon
Taking the keys from Deere, Brady and Clark opened the cells containing the other five prisoners and then locked Deere in another cell.

The convicts hastily constructed a ladder from scrap lumber and made a dash for the south wall. As they scaled the wall the alarm sounded, and guards stationed on the wall opened fire.

The prisoners escaped under the heavy fire and fled on foot down railroad tracks which run south from the prison.

A general alarm was sounded throughout this section, and a hastily formed posse began an immediate search of the countryside.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Confidential representatives of President Roosevelt are sounding out leaders in congress on their attitude toward creation of a "Bank of America," with exclusive authority to issue all forms of paper currency, but without banking powers.

This proposal for a central government bank of issue, plus reduction of the gold content of the dollar, would constitute the president's program for restoring commodity prices. He has decided definitely against any present remonetization of silver or even the purchase of silver to be used as the basis for new issues of currency. He prefers to inflate commodity prices by control of a gold-standard currency.

Plans Revealed
The president's plans were revealed to International News Service by a high government authority.

Through creation of a central bank of issue, the president plans to use the currency to fix commodity prices. He hopes to restore the 1920 price levels and then to maintain them by manipulation of the amount of currency in circulation. He has no intention whatever of establishing such a "central bank" as the old bank of the United States, which Andrew Jackson destroyed. The plan would give the president (Continued On Page Two)

Woman Unable To Hold Her Head Up As Time For Trial Arrived Today

By DOROTHY DUCAS

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynekoop's dangerous condition today postponed her trial for the murder of her daughter-in-law, Rheta, until Monday morning.

The 62-year-old woman came into court so weak she could not hold her head up, but willing to go ahead.

Her attorney told Judge Joseph B. David that two heart specialists had examined Dr. Wynekoop at the jail last night and informed them the woman's death was highly probable if she continued to stand trial today.

Necessitate Postponement
Consequently after an argument in chambers, the judge called in the jury and told them "certain conditions" had developed which would necessitate a postponement. "You are to draw no deductions from that," he added.

When the jury filed out W. W. Smith, chief defense counsel, expressed it as his opinion the haggard old woman was in a "dying condition."

The defendant collapsed at the close of yesterday's court session and was revived by hypodermics. All night long physicians were in attendance, and this morning Dr. Francis McNamara, jail physician, advised against Dr. Wynekoop's attempt to go to court.

"I am going to continue," she answered him, between dry and bluish lips.

ENJOY YOUR FOOD

It may be necessary for you to follow a rather restricted diet. This need not lead you to approach meal time in a displeased mood.

Unpleasant thoughts cause less desire for appropriate food. Even in perfect health mental disturbance will cause indigestion.

Enjoyment of a meal depends much upon the spirit with which you contemplate the food presented. It is easy to bring on a state in which you will relish anything that you can safely eat, because you are thinking so much about those things that are forbidden to you.

Instead of complaining, consider yourself fortunate that you have the money to pay for food and can still eat enough of certain food to sustain life.

Thousands would count themselves lucky if they could digest what you can.

Thousands are digging early graves for themselves because of ignorance of their own condition or because of lack of knowledge as to what and how to eat.

You have the benefits of scientific education and prescription. While you do live, life will be more comfortable if you are careful to follow the rules for health laid down in your own case—so be thankful and happy.

There are many thousands who are in a much worse condition than you are.

All Of Us

BY MARSHALL MASLIN

THIS, TOO, MIGHT BE TRUE

A friend of mine in New Hampshire wrote this to me: "You wrote about Mother Nature. Did you know that you were writing about God?"

No, I didn't know that, but I do know that it may be true.

If I wrote about a tree or a blade of grass about the new fallen snow on the roofs of houses in the moonlight—

If I wrote about a glowworm or a fish in the sea or a new-laid egg—

If I wrote about a skyscraper or a dream or a puppy or a kitten—

If I wrote of an algebraic problem or a star or the ebbing tide—

Of the pulsing heart or a finger nail or a little girl's eyelashes—

Of storm and sunshine, or dawn or sunset, or spring or autumn—

Of agony or peace, of joy or sorrow, of bitterness or content—

If I wrote of a black and white twig, or the shape of drifting clouds, or a small brook trickling through the ice—

I might, my friend, be writing about God.

Let's not say, I do not know. Let's say, I am not sure. When it seems most simple it may be most complicated, and when it is saddest it may be breaking toward a smile, and when a man's most near to despair the seeds of great hope and profound faith may be germinating sweetly in his heart. . . . And for all I know I may be writing about God when I think I am writing of Mother Nature and her ways with the children of men.

THE PRICE

"How much will it cost?" asked the business man.

For buying is done on a careful plan. And the price is important. Lest money be lost.

To the penny a merchant must reckon on the cost.

And "yes" to the salesman he'll seldom say.

If he thinks it is more than he ought to pay.

He'll ask in advance ere the deal be made.

Over how many months must the bill be paid.

No paper he'll sign without reading it through.

For that is the sensible thing to do. And his books will show to the final cent.

For just what wares was his money spent.

Well, pleasure's a salesman with wares to sell.

But the cost of its goods it will seldom tell.

The stuff is gaudy and bright to see. But to buy them blindly a fool is he.

For the price of a thrill which but cheap appears.

May be sorrow and headache that last for years.

Question the salesman! Lest all be lost.

See if the pleasure be worth its cost. Look the goods over as merchants do.

Read the fine print in the contract through.

And be sure ere you barter your life away.

The thrill is worth all that you'll have to pay.

Some darkies were discussing the miracles in the Bible. They got talking about the time a chariot of fire came between Elijah and Elisha.

One darky expressed the belief that the chariot of fire was a Chevrolet. Another said that it couldn't have been, because General Motors had not come out with the Chevrolet model at that time.

The colored preacher finally solved the matter. He said Elijah and Elisha had made a trade regarding Elisha's mantle. When Elijah got into his car, which was a Model T Ford Elisha offered to crank it. As Elisha cranked this Ford, it flew off the handle taking Elijah with it.

"Tell me," said the new arrival

"what is the status of the liquor supply around here?"

"I mean it is easy to obtain liquor and is there much of it around here?"

"Well, mister," replied the native. "All I can tell you is that a little way back they turned off the water supply for a week and nobody knew it till the town hall caught fire."

The World At A Glance

Two Groups in Wall Street
Costly Stabilization Fund
Rail Wage Reduction to End

By LESLIE EICHEL

Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Inwardly speaking, Wall Street bankers are increasingly opposed to President Roosevelt's monetary plans. On the other hand, the Wall Street speculative element is enthusiastic.

Wall Street has been divided into two camps since the advent of the Roosevelt administration—the bankers and the "speculators." The public does not seem aware of this.

BOND FEARS ALLAYED

Even though Wall Street bankers oppose President Roosevelt's monetary plans, they nevertheless admit that they are adroitly maneuvered.

When the president made it clear that $6,000,000,000 in government re-financing would be needed, Wall Street bankers feared that government securities would flood the market, to the exclusion of all private financing.

Then along came the message on revaluation of the dollar at a stabilized figure—and there was a rush to buy government securities. A stabilized dollar makes it one of the greatest investments in the world, if not the greatest. The dollar has so much actual gold behind it, that it will be difficult for the government to keep its value in foreign markets depressed to 50 or 60 per cent of its former value against foreign currencies.

Of course, government bonds rise or fall with the value of the dollar in foreign exchange markets.

STABILIZATION FUND

If the dollar is to be kept down in foreign exchanges ever to 60 per cent of its old value, it will take every bit of the two billion dollars the president plans to set aside for the purpose to accomplish that, Wall Street bankers believe.

The president would take the two billion out of the nearly four billion "profit" that would result from revaluation of the dollar. That is, if half the gold on hand is sold, that is required to back our present currency, then the other half is "profit."

Many conservative bankers believe it would be wise to revalue the dollar at, say, 70 per cent, so that it would "stay down" against favorable trade balances.

They would use the two billion to retire government debt. On the other hand, if the dollar is not definitely pegged at one figure, American trade abroad will operate under such difficulties that it might lose more than two billion dollars.

At any rate, one way or another, Uncle Sam will gamble and lose two billion dollars on keeping the dollar down.

RAILROAD WAGES

It looks as if the 10 per cent railroad wage reduction will not be extended beyond July 1, the expiration date of the present agreement.

Under existing agreements, no action may be taken prior to February 1. It is, however, a foregone conclusion that railroad brotherhoods will insist on the return of the 10 per cent, particularly in view of increased railroad earnings.

RICH RAILROAD

Benefited for years by high coal rates, the Norfolk & Western railroad is the most envied railroad corporation today. It is controlled by the Pennsylvania. Unlike, however, its parent organization, it has not indulged in any arguements to gain control of other railroads. Its capital, therefore, is unimpaired. That is why, now, it blithely pays off a $3,000,000 issue of 6 per cent improvement bonds. For seven years it has been reducing its debt burden like that.

Another wealthy railroad, burdened now by poor relatives (through Van Sweringen control), the Chesapeake & Ohio is paying off without refinancing a $3,950,000 issue of 6 per cent.

Historic Anniversaries—1784—

First mass of flight in history occurred to the surprise and dismay of Etienne Montgolfier, Frenchman who built the "fire" balloon in which it was carried out. At Lyons as he and two companions were about to ascend, four young noblemen jumped to the car, drew swords and the mooring ropes. Montgolfier and two assistants scrambled in as the balloon started to rise and off over Lyons the seven drifted in one of the epochal flights of history. Half hour later, when the fiesmoie in the 400,000 cubic foot bag had escaped they were dumped back upon the ground.

1810—Commodore Charles Wilkes U. S. N., aged 41 made a discovery that wasn't believed for 68 years: the Antarctic continent. Commanding a squadron of six naval vessels sent out to explore, survey and chart the Southern Seas, he sighted an unknown land at 158 deg. E. Longitude, west of the Ballynary Islands. When he got back in June 1842, after circumnavigating the globe, he was court-martialed and sentenced to a year in prison. He had fabricated "his discovery." He had been dead 31 years when Sir Ernest Shackleton, headed for the South Pole, corroborated it.

1848—California became El Dorado as James Wilson Marshall discovered gold near Caloma on Col. John Sutter's land. This was not the first discovery of gold in America. A farmer digging in soil in North Carolina, near North Carolina, discovered the first gold rush in the country. In the next 75 years $20,000,000 in gold was dug up in North Carolina and Georgia. Col. Sutter was a rich man when gold was discovered upon his land; he never profited from the discovery and he died in poverty.

1931—President Hoover decided the country didn't want repeal. In transmitting the Wickersham Commission's report on enforcement of prohibition to Congress, the President said he did not favor repeal or revision suggested by the majority of the commission.

Notables Born This Date—Robert E. Lee, b. 1807, whom foreign military historians rate as the greatest of American generals. He was 34 when he resigned his commission in the U. S. Army to become a Confederate leader. Maj. Gen. Sir Frederick Maurice, British admiral and biographer of Lee. James Watt b. 1736, Englishman erroneously credited with invention of the steam engine. There were steam engines and steamboats before Watt was born. Edgar Allan Poe, b. 1809, poet, short story writer, essayist and critic who is regarded in foreign countries as the greatest American writer. August Comte, b. 1798, philosopher and author of calendar of Great Men, a classic work. Alexander Woolf, b. 1887, writer and rector. Lillian Harvey, b. 1903, cinema actress. Cary Grant, cinema actor. David Stuart Jordan, b. 1857, educator. Shaw Desmond b. 1877, novelist and publicist.

In The Good Old Days—The Irish House of Commons, in 1703 expelled one Mr. Asgill from his seat for asserting the possibility of translation to the other world without death. It was feared such blasphemy would bring woe upon the House.

FAMILY DONE

"Yes," said the businessman who had got on in life. "When I first came to New York I had only a dollar in my pocket with which to make a start."

"How did you invest that dollar?" asked his youthful listener.

"Used it for a telegram to wire home for more," the other told him.

Complaints On CWA Workers Are Being Studied

Complaints Against Method Of Placing Men On CWA Jobs Are Being Investigated

MANY FOREMEN ARE DISMISSED

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Complaints "of any kind" against the method of placing men for civil works project are being investigated "as fast as we get them." A. W. Motley, chief of the federal-state employment offices said today.

"There was bound to be some slip-ups and misfits in carrying out any task which mushroomed like the CWA did," Motley said. "But we are driving to the root of these difficulties and eliminating them."

The employment chief pointed out that the personnel in the 12 federal-state regional offices has been increased from 90 to 550 within a month or six weeks because of the CWA demand for placements. Four thousand persons are being placed in CWA jobs daily through these 12 offices.

John McCune, head of the federal re-employment service with offices in the 55 counties not having a state agency, said: "We are having none of that kind of trouble here."

Complain Of Methods
Motley intimated that some of the complaints which have been laid at the door of the CWA and the county employment offices resulted from methods used by foremen and engineers directing work on CWA projects and representing the governmental subdivision sponsoring the projects.

These foremen and engineers can reject persons sent to them by the employment offices and ask for others until they are able to staff their payroll with persons they desire, he said.

Where an employment office probe reveals this being done, Motley said, the matter is turned over to the CWA administrator in the county so that the job head can be removed. Motley added that the CWA was co-operating "thoroughly" in taking speedy action in such cases.

While refusing to discuss any particular situation specifically, Motley explained that many complaints reaching him resulted from the fact that jobless persons saw friends getting jobs and "became alarmed and disgruntled because they have not received one."

Win First Honors In Jersey Cattle Exhibit At State Farm Show

MERCER, Pa., Jan. 19.—For the third consecutive year the Jersey herd at the Mercer Sanitarium has been adjudged the champion here in Pennsylvania. Dr. E. S. Ingraham, business manager of the institution, has just been notified of this honor.

The award for the rating took place at the Jersey Cattle Breeders meeting of this week in Harrisburg held in connection with the state products show.

The herd with an average of 15 cows during the year established a butter fat record of 498.8 pounds per cow, while the average milk production was in excess of 3,800 pounds per cow. The totals obtained is the result of long years of herd building on the part of Dr. Ingraham. Purchases of sires and dams in the upper brackets of Jersey aristocracy obtains this result.

We buy only the center leaves for Luckies. Not the top leaves for they are under-developed. Not the bottom leaves for they are inferior in quality. Only the center leaves for these are truly mild and fully ripe. And that's the fine tobacco we use—to make Luckies so round, so firm, so fully packed—free from loose ends that spill out. That's why Luckies are always mild, always truly mild. And remember, "It's toasted"—for throat protection—for finer taste.

Government Should Lend Helping Hand Toward Educations

The official report of the bureau of education showing the plight of the nation's educational structure has resulted in a movement being initiated in congress for school aid. A proposition of government aid to institutions of higher learning herewith presents the arguments of those believing there is a serious crisis in American education.

By REP. JOHN J. McSWAN, of South Carolina
(Written Expressly for International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Nothing is more important than the education of our people. The colleges are the light of our civilization.

One of the saddest results of the depression period is the blow suffered by small colleges, especially denominational colleges. Such schools have educated most of our great leaders in every walk of life. Many of those which have not been forced to close have been seriously crippled and their faculties have made heroic sacrifices. Many professors who received under normal conditions from $3500 to $5000 annually have been reduced to $1000 a month or less.

While it is unfortunate the only source of credit now is the federal government, yet that government should and must lend a helping hand to the colleges.

Unable To Pay
The students themselves are unable to pay large fees and endowments invested in real estate mortgages and industrial bonds are not yielding a steady revenue.

I firmly believe in the very great value of the colleges. Their securities are good. If they can borrow on these securities from the reconstruction finance corp. at low interest rates they will be able to tide themselves over the economic crisis and eventually repay with interest.

The immediate benefits of extending loans to these institutions will include the keeping of young men and women in college instead of forcing them into probable unemployment. It will extend employment to idle teachers.

I believe such loans by the RFC will be safer, though slower than loans to banks. Loans by colleges are usually made with great care and long term paper. College do not foreclose mortgage except as a last resort.

Still Selecting Jury For Trial Of Touhy Gang

Five Jurors Remain To Be Chosen In Chicago Kidnaping Trial

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Five jurors still remained to be chosen today in the trial of Roger Touhy and three fellow gangsters for the $70,000 ransom kidnaping of John "Jake the Barber" Factor, wealthy stock promoter.

Nettled at the slow progress of the trial, Judge Michael Feinberg summoned 100 more veniremen to court tomorrow and an additional 100 on Tuesday. Because of "conscientious scruples" against the death penalty, which the state is demanding, Judge Feinberg has had to excuse a total of 48 veniremen.

State Will Sell Dollar Whisky In Stores Monday

Demand For Cheaper Whiskey Will Be Met By State; Gin Also To Be Lower

PLAN TO HIRE FIFTY AGENTS

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Dollar whisky and 90-cent gin goes on sale at state liquor stores next Monday. The liquor control board announced today in revealing the new price list, effective January 22, which includes 67 new brands and boosts prices on most stocks from a nickel to $2.30. The new price list followed the board's announcement of a determined drive to enforce provisions of the new liquor control act which will entail adding a corps of 50 enforcement officers to the administrative staff.

One of the 67 new brands to go on sale Monday will be Sweepstakes whisky at $1 per fifth. Another is Cavalier gin at 90 cents a fifth. Apple Jack at $2.25 a quart and $1.25 a pint also was among the new brands added to the price list.

Boost in Price.
Most of the whiskies, gins and other beverages were boosted in price from 15 to 25 cents a bottle because of the increase in the federal tax from $1.10 to $2 per gallon.

Reductions of federal levies on champagne, however, brought the prices for these brands down from 10 to 30 cents per bottle. Similar cuts were effected for sparkling Burgundy wines. Domestic wines showed few changes, although some brands were hiked a nickel in price. The largest increase in price was for sparkling Moselle, the boost being from $5.50 to $7 a bottle. This was due, the board said, to the fact that the dealers forgot to add the import duties to their original price quotations.

Examinations for applicants for the enforcement agents jobs will be held within the next ten days. Two years service either in the state police, the highway patrol or some other state inspection service is demanded of applicants to "insure the efficiency of the agents."

Ask Cooperation.
In announcing plans for an enforcement drive, the board asked for the support of all residents of the commonwealth. The statement pointed out that the liquor law, unlike the prohibition statute, penalizes both bootlegger and purchaser. Individuals making illegal purchases face a $300 to $500 fine for first offense and a fine of $500 and one year imprisonment for subsequent offenses.

Fines up to $1,000 and prison terms up to one year can be imposed upon bootleggers for first convictions, with subsequent convictions bringing fines of not less than $1,000 and jail terms up to two years. Illegal sales by retail licensees are subject to the same penalties.

The board also pointed out that importation of liquor is penalized the same as bootlegging under the law.

Hickory Heights Parents-Teachers Meet Thursday

Interesting Program Is Presented At School Thursday Evening

A large crowd turned out Thursday evening at the Hickory Heights school for the regular parents-teachers meeting and was privileged to enjoy one of the most interesting programs ever given at the school.

The meeting was opened with prayer, followed by a short business session at which plans were made for a dinner to be held in the near future, with Mrs. W. V. Wagner being named to further arrangements.

Mrs. Carrie Jeffery Roberts was guest speaker and she had for her subject "Mothers." The program in two parts, was in charge of Miss Cecile Hall and it was most enjoyable. A beautiful tableau presenting scenes in the life of "mother" throughout the time of candles, oil lamps and the present time of electric lights featured.

The first part of the program included a recitation, "Ma and the Auto" by George Johnson. A play entitled "What Became of the Birthday Dinner" was given by the following young people: Maxine Mercer, Helen Kwiat, Florence Rich, Sophia Wallace, Sophia Yakubik, Minnie Wellman, Glenn McConnell, Billy Wagner and Louis Lisko.

Recitation—"Jack LaRue."
Piano solo—Samuel Robison.
Recitation, "Tell Her So"—Constance Watt.

Violin solo—Betty Munnell.
Sacred song, "Face to Face"—Five girls, Betty Munnell, Dorothy McConnell, Margaret White, Ruth Boyles, Betty Robison.

Characters in the tableau were Charles Brunton, Jimmy Spannelli, Margaret Drespling, Samuel Robison, Billy Wagner, Anna Bodzich, Wilda McConkey, Constance Watt, Katherine Raab and Helen Kwiat, first offense and a fine of $500 and $1,000.

Solo—"When Your Hair Has Turned to Silver"—David Kimmell.

After the play, the evening's enjoyment was continued as the guest speaker, Mrs. Roberts, in her sincere, interesting and enlightening manner, spoke at length on her topic "Mothers" and the ones present took home with them something of value.

The next meeting will be held the second Thursday in February.

Mme. Serge Stavisky
Widely celebrated in France for her beauty, Mme. Serge Stavisky, widow of the man who bore responsibility for $40,000,000 Bayonne bank failure, was questioned in regard to his affairs. Shown to be swindler, Stavisky's ruin nearly caused overthrow of government. (Central Press)

Mae West Must Have Her Couch, Even In Court

Mae West Appearing In Court In Trial Of Robber, Asks For Couch And Gets It

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19.—Mae "She Done Him Wrong" West, the actress was ready today for another personal appearance in court where she is a witness against Edward Friedman, on trial accused of robbing her of $15,400 in jewels and money.

Excitement in the trial mounted today after Miss West moved her boudoir to the district attorney's office and after three threatening telephone calls had been received by presiding Judge Harry F. Sewell. The jurist was advised that "the easiest way out" would be to acquit Friedman. Judge Sewell said, however, that the calls merely were warnings that violence may occur in the court room and extra guards were posted.

Miss West's call for a lounge created a near riot in the court room. After working all night on a new play she was summoned for another possible appearance on the witness stand.

The actress said she was tired. "Just like my trouping days," she commented as she reclined on a couch after flashing pretty smiles at court attaches and others who "battled" for the privilege of obtaining the couch from the grand jury room.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Depreciation in yen exchange continued to aid Japan's export trade during the first three-quarters of 1933 according to a report compiled in the Commerce Department's Regional Information Division. Exports during the nine-month period were valued at 1,353,960,000 yen as compared with 937,965,000 yen for the corresponding period of 1932. At the end of September, Japan's unfavorable trade balance stood at 69,916,000 yen, against 115,842,000 yen on September 30, 1932.

TRYING TO LURE SUMMER VISITORS

(International News Service)
CODY, Wyo., Jan. 19.—Wyoming will be nationally advertised as a recreation country under a program outlined by dude ranchers of this region at a recent meeting here. I. H. Larson of Valley, Wyo., president of the Dude Wranglers' association, pointed out that many Wyoming counties were dependent almost entirely on summer visitors for revenue, but that the business had declined because of lack of advertising spirit.

SCOUT LEADERS TO BE TRAINED EARLY IN WEEK

National Girl Scout Staff Member To Be In Charge Of Four Day Course

Miss Jeanne Christy of the national Girl Scout staff will be in New Castle on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, to give first and second class trainings to New Castle's corps of Girl Scout troop leaders.

Training classes will be conducted on the second floor of the Central Presbyterian church each afternoon and each evening of those four days. In the afternoon, from 2:00 to 4:00 o'clock, Miss Christy will conduct second class training. In the evening from 7:30 to 9:00 o'clock she will conduct first class training.

Captains whose troop meetings conflict with those hours are asked to dispense with the troop meetings. It is very important that all troop leaders take the training if at all possible.

Twenty new Girl Scout troop leaders of New Castle received training in tenderfoot work this fall and early winter, but none of the twenty have until now had an opportunity to study the advanced work. They will be enrolled in the second class training which will be conducted every afternoon.

The leaders who have already had second class training will be enrolled in the evening classes. Leaders who have taken first class work before will also enroll in the evening classes, as the training course differs every year and the leaders will desire to keep informed on all changes.

POLICE OF THE WEST QUICKER ON THE DRAW

(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 16.—Commenting on the fact that bandits and gangsters kill more law enforcement officers east of the Mississippi river than in the west, Warden Preston E. Thomas of Ohio Penitentiary here, declared it is due probably to the fact that police are "quicker on the draw out west."

"In the east and mid-west, policemen keep their guns under their coats and don't have them where they can get at them easily," the warden commented.

You use just ½ the soap... your working time is cut ½ or more. White clothes come out shades whiter. Colored clothes emerge from the washing far cleaner, softer and fresher-looking than ever before. Climalene also makes dishes wink and twinkle just like gay displays in the finest shops, and your hands stay soft and smooth. For new ease, new economy wherever you use water for cleaning, try Climalene.

During 1932 There Were Only 20 In United States With Million Dollar Incomes

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The depression took a terrific toll of millionaire incomes.

In 1932 twenty persons filed income tax returns showing incomes of more than $1,000,000 a year, the internal revenue bureau revealed Thursday.

This was in contrast to 513 "millionaire" incomes filed in 1929, the peak of prosperity. The reduction was due chiefly to the heavy losses taken by those of large income.

In 1929 there were 38 individuals with annual incomes of more than $5,000,000. The years of depression eliminated entirely these multi-millionaires to that for 1932 there were but two persons who exceeded the $4,000,000 mark. No returns were filed showing incomes of more than $5,000,000 annually.

In the $1,000,000-$1,500,000 class in 1929 were 234 taxpayers contrasted with 12 in 1932. The $1,500,000-$2,000,000 class registered 123 returns in 1929, and three in 1932; the $2,000,000-$3,000,000 class 67 in 1929 as compared with three in 1932; the $3,000,000-$4,000,000 class 32 in 1929 with none in 1932.

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Municipal officials were urged today to take advantage of the opportunity to use CWA funds to paint the names of their cities on prominent buildings as guides for aviators.

Risked Lives But, It Was Unnecessary

(International News Service)
YORK, Pa., Jan. 19.—Firemen risked their lives to dash into a blazing shack in search of two men whom they were informed were in the building only to find later the dwellers were in perfect safety—in the York county jail.

The men, Russell Kohler and Charles Shank, were serving 10 day sentences for insulting women.

TELLS HOW TO GET RID OF BACKACHE - - WEAK KIDNEYS

The Vendol Man at the New Castle Drug Co. says, "I want every man and woman in this section suffering from backache or rheumatism, to let me personally tell them how my new remedy will bring relief."

If there is a man or woman in New Castle or vicinity who suffers from backache, sore muscles, stiff joints or aches and pains through the body; if there is anyone who is called upon several times during the night, they should follow the example of hundreds of the best citizens who have taken Vendol and received great relief.

Some of the letters telling how Vendol gave relief are truly remarkable and prove over and over that Vendol is a medicine far above the average. In fact, Vendol is very different from the usual run of patent medicines. The drugs used in manufacturing Vendol probably cost double what others do, yet the price to the public is no higher. When you take Vendol you are taking a real medicine.

Your kidneys may be a little weak so they are not thoroughly disposing of the poisons and waste matter which should be passing off daily. This brings on aches, pains, swollen joints, sore, stiff muscles, neuritis, rheumatism and backache. But Vendol quickly corrects this trouble and you'll soon know what it means to enjoy a night of perfect rest without being called up.

At the same time, you'll notice your appetite improve, nerves calm down, the constipated condition will disappear and your digestion greatly improve. Vendol also works off a sluggish liver. Not worth a slug of liver. I was up four or five times every night and couldn't find a thing to correct this trouble. A friend advised me to try Vendol, and it went right to the spot and now I'm entirely free of these troubles."

Mrs. Amanda Leonard writes, "A few bottles of Vendol have brought relief from backache and painful joints from which I have suffered for months. Vendol also cleared my complexion which was sallow and relieved dizziness."

If you have backache or pains in the side, if your muscles are sore and painful, if your joints hurt every time you bend them, if constipation has you bound up or a lazy liver makes you feel dizzy, take Vendol and in a short time you'll be free of these troubles. Others have found it so, too.

Come to New Castle Drug Co., 31 East Washington street, ask for me, the Vendol Man, and I'll tell you more about my splendid medicine and how it will help you. Vendol is also sold at the 24 N. Mill St. store.

Bureau Makes New High Mark Issuing Auto Tags

HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—In issuing nearly a million sets of 1934 license plates in December, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles established an all-time record for one month's business.

Analysis of the daily reports today showed the Bureau sent out by mail over-the-counter a total of 984,000 registrations during the month. This was 26,812 more than the previous record of 957,188 in December, 1931.

In averaging 39,360 daily for the 25 working days of the month, the Bureau issued 90,592 on December 27 and set a new mark of 390,410 for six consecutive days.

Reviewing the annual rush today, H. Richard Stickel, director of the Bureau, said:

"The Bureau of Motor Vehicles was able to reach a new degree of speed and efficiency last month by issuing 984,010 sets of plates in 25 working days. The achievement, which surpassed by more than 20,000 the previous record total for December, made it possible to overcome the late start caused by the later mailing of application blanks."

"The renewed applications were withheld until November 2 this year to give the Bureau the maximum length of time to check old addresses, changes in address, etc. In other years the applications were mailed on October 1 or 15."

"The result was that issuance of licenses for 1934 was effectively concentrated in December and the Bureau was set up accordingly. The fact that 1,156,474 sets of tags were issued on December 30—an increase of 30,457 over the December 31, 1932, total—attests the success of the policy. The issuance of 90,592 registrations on a single day, with the last plates in the mail by nine p. m., is further proof, while the eliminating of long waiting lines by doubling the window capacity of the office delivery section gave belated owners the fastest possible service in getting tags at the window on the final days of the year."

Stickel said January registrations are running consistently ahead of last year. He urged motor vehicle owners who have not yet obtained new tags to apply at once and join the great majority who are getting the greatest possible returns from their annual investment in licenses.

Million And Half In Liquor Funds For Distribution

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Liquor tax collections in Pennsylvania to date total $278,675, the department of revenue reported today.

The total was divided as follows: $167,241 from the $2 per gallon pre-1927 floor tax; $153,916 from liquor brought into and sold in the state before the stores opened; $55,127 from wines and $1,390 from rectified spirits.

It was explained that virtually none of the larger payments of floor taxes have been made and that the permanent liquor tax money is dribbling in as merchandise is sold. The liquor license fund which will be distributed to municipalities February 1 today totals $1,553,146.

Maybe There Is Something In Name

Simon is known to police as Cutler, Harry Miller, Gold, Berg, Chas. Miller, Harry Simon, Harry Snyder, Brown, Charles Smith, Lewis Smith, Harry Cohen and Gordon. He was accused of picking the pocket of Miles Earley, Hummelstown, at a football game last October.

Gifford Pinchot himself a member, is discharged from a New York City hospital where he is confined with a nervous ailment.

The Governor Says

What Is Going On
In Harrisburg—
And Why

By GIFFORD PINCHOT
Governor of Pennsylvania

What the Governor is inclined to say this time is about shingles and would hardly be fit to print.

Shingles, known in medical society as Herpes Zoster, has given me a lot of time to think. And a lot of things to think about.

The first thing it has made me think of is what hospitals and doctors and nurses mean to human beings. I have always been strong for hospitals, as many as are needed, and as fine as possible. Personally I never have had much experience in them before. About twenty years ago I went to a hospital for an operation for hernia, and one other time a slight throat operation let me see the inside of a hospital. But now I know very intimately and deeply what it means to have doctors care when the pain is pretty fierce. It means everything.

Of course this friend of mine, Mr. H. Zoster, nicknamed shingles, is not dangerous. If he were, the doctors would know more about the scoundrel. But I have tried a good many cures through hundreds of letters from friends. At first nothing seemed to help except to wait until the disease was good and ready to go, but I think I am on the track of a remedy that really helps.

One kind lady wrote that the only cure is to rub the shingles with the blood from the comb of a coal black cock, hatched in a graveyard in the dark of the moon. She warned me that the bird must have no spot of white. I don't believe that I will have to try that on Mr. Zoster, although he is mighty mean with his red hot poker.

However, he has done me a good turn by making me happy that I can help Pennsylvania's hospitals. He has made me very glad that I can soon approve a Federal aid construction program for State institutions and hospitals. And he has made me rejoice again that we passed that amendment to the State Constitution on November 7 so that many of our citizens can be helped at our hospitals when they are sick and maimed.

I want to do all I can to put shingles on the roofs of hospitals. They are all right there, but no good around a governor's waist.

I have seen in this hospital many suffering men and women to whom it is the only haven in the world when they are hurt and sick. I saw the great sorrow of a son and daughter whose mother was killed and whose father was seriously hurt in an accident. They had to keep the news of their mother's death from the father. The hospital was the only place they could turn. Here everyone worked feverishly to save what was left of the broken family. The father was saved. I know what hospitals mean to these people now.

I've been thinking about some other things. In the light of my own experience, I have decided that the Book of Job ought to be rewritten to substitute shingles for boils.

A friend of mine sent me a Christmas card, written on a wooden shingle, which said:

"Shingle, bells!
Shingle, bells!
Shingle all the day!"

So I wired him that I could easily finish the verse by saying, "But, oh, what fun it is to ride with shingles all the way!"

I'm going to start a shingles club. I never knew before how many people had shingles, but in the last five weeks I've learned that a mighty big shingles club could be started.

If anyone wants to join my shingles club, let him drop me a postal card, specifying the number of bundles of shingles he is ready to contribute.

Shingles is a simple word, but when it is worked on by the imagination of my enemies, it becomes creeping paralysis, a mental breakdown, a stroke. One rumor even went so far as to have me picked up in pieces after a jump from a fourth story window. Unfortunately for these wishful thinkers, these reports, as Mark Twain remarked of reports of his death, are greatly exaggerated.

Mr. Zoster is now packing up to leave. It is giving me great pleasure to see him go.

What are the shingles like? Like a wire waste basket worn around the middle, every wire of it white hot. May you never get acquainted with old Herp Zoster!

Sees More Students Entering Colleges From Senior High

Principal Frank L. Orth declared today that a greater percentage of Senior high school graduates are enrolling in colleges and universities nowadays than at any time during the four-year depression period.

He believes that, with the nation's economic slump passing, more and more graduates are finding themselves financially able to enter an institution of higher learning.

Prof. Orth reported that last September more of last June's class members went to college than any class within the past several years.

The school graduates another class of 191 seniors on January 26.

Jesus Begins His Ministry

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Golden Text, Matt. 4:17, "Repent ye for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand."

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for January 21 is Matt. 4:12-25, the Golden Text being Matt. 4:17, "Repent ye for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.")

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

The Bible student may easily discover for himself the outline around which to make an analysis of the gospel according to Matthew by locating the distinct turning points in 4:17 in the words, "From that time began Jesus to preach, and to the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand" and in 19:21 in the words, "From that time began Jesus to show unto his disciples how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer . . . and be killed, and the third day be raised up." Thus the first section dealing with the Person of the King (1:1 to 4:16) swings into the second section dealing with the preaching of the Kingdom (4:17 to 16:20) and then into the final section dealing with the Passion of the King (16:21 to 28:20).

The Three Years' Ministry
Matthew passes immediately from the temptation of Jesus to his Galilean ministry. But let us not overlook the fact that between these two there were a number of months intervening during which the real beginnings of Jesus' public ministry took place not in Galilee, but in Judea, the record of which we have given us only by John in John 1:19 to 4:42, all of which took place between verses 11 and 12 of Matthew's fourth chapter or between our lessons of last Sunday and this Sunday. Thus we pass from "the year of obscurity", spent largely in Judea, to "the year of popularity", spent largely in Galilee, and this in turn will give way to "the year of opposition", spent largely in Perea and Judea. All this should be held in perspective as we read this first verse of today's lesson (4:12). "Now when he heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee; and leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum," etc.

The Galilean Ministry Begun
So this meeting of Jesus with the Galilean fishermen when Jesus calls them to leave their nets and follow him is not their first meeting with the Master. They had met him some months before when they had been drawn out into the wilderness to hear John the Baptist and had now had these months to meditate upon what they had then seen and heard from Jesus of Nazareth. As a result all that is needed now as he finds them casting their nets into the sea is his gracious invitation: "Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men," and, "They straightway left their nets, and followed him". Thus Peter and Andrew become disciples of Jesus. A bit later he finds another pair of brothers, James and John, "in the boat with Zebedee, their father, mending their nets; and he called them, and they straightway left the boat and their father and followed him."

"Unknown and Yet Well Known"
These were not supermen whom Jesus took from their slimy nets and ill smelling boats and fish markets to remake the world. The explanation is to be found in the Master rather than in the men. He said to them, "Follow me and I will make you", and so he did! They were literally remade into new creations as they followed him and learned of him and reflected his personality as "Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness among the people." And what Christ did in them he can repeat in the lives of all who will truly follow him.

Radio Commentator Pays Fine Of $300

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 19.—Charles M. Hackett, a local radio commentator, on Wednesday was adjudged guilty of contempt of court by Judge David J. Reinhardt in general sessions court, and fined $300.

The contempt charge grew out of comment Hackett is alleged to have made last Thursday night over a local radio station on a liquor conspiracy theft trial that had started that day. The next day Judge Reinhardt declared a mistrial due, he said, to Hackett's alleged remarks.

Judge Reinhardt in adjudging him guilty said the statement Hackett made over the radio "showed a reckless indifference to the facts in the case and related to matters that were not brought out at the trial." Hackett paid the fine and $29.93 costs and was released.

NEED LICENSE NOW

HARRISBURG—The dog that has the protection of the law is wearing a 1934 tag. The Department of Revenue, pointing out that all 1933 tags are invalid after January 15, urges all owners of pet canines to obtain new licenses at once from county treasurers.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending 3:30 p. m. January 18, nine arrests, on charges as follows: drunkenness, 2; suspicion, 3; drunkenness and disorderly conduct, 1; speeding, 1 and violating traffic ordinances, 2.

During the past few years until 1934 broke into life city engineers have not been hurried with work but at present Harry Hoskins is up to his ears in work and plenty of it. As the engineer for the city he is the consulting engineer for the civil works administration relative to projects within the city. He studies all plans, makes recommendations and visits projects which are under way.

Some days ago the chief of police announced that bluecoats had ridden street cars and espied autoists who had operated to the left of street cars while the latter took aboard or discharged passengers. Owners of the cars were notified to appear with $3.00, at police headquarters and yesterday there were several who deposited their fines with a desk sergeant of police.

B. F. Butler, director of streets, intimated yesterday that the time may come when trucks laden with gasoline will be compelled to make a circuitous route instead of passing directly through the city. Butler believes, he said, that if one of the trucks caught fire it would result in a property loss of no small value. So far as he knows now, he said, there is no ruling which would cause them to journey through the city without using Washington street. One may be made, he intimated.

George Nickum, who decided to stand councilmanic trial on charges of misconduct while a city electrician, will be in council Monday when the charges are aired. He requested a hearing. Should Mr. Nickum be found guilty the council will ask the civil service board to hold an examination so a successor can be named. Rex Hughes is doing the work temporarily.

All data for this revised edition has been assembled as a CWA project.

School Teachers To Be Given Jobs On Survey Plans

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Unemployed school teachers in Pennsylvania are to be hired for a survey of adult educational and recreational opportunities in the commonwealth, the Civil Works Administration announced.

Approximately 300 teachers will be given temporary work under the plan which will be supervised by presidents of the state teachers colleges. Wages from $15 to $35 weekly will be paid to those employed in the work.

The project will reach into every county. There will be a supervisor for each county with from one to four jobless teachers working under the leader. A research assistant, a statistician and two stenographers will codify the survey reports for each teachers college district.

FIREARMS PERMITS

Pinchot Blocks Probe Of State Liquor Stores

Legislative Bill Would Have Investigated Method Of Dispensing Of Liquor

PLAN USED IS BEST IN NATION

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Gov. Gifford Pinchot today blocked a legislative investigation of his state liquor store system, which is regarded by him as the best "in the nation" by vetoing the Zelsenheim resolution.

In the face of criticism to the system from both wet and dry, the governor defended that method of liquor distribution but offered to make changes if necessary. The resolution would have created a commission to study the liquor dispensing methods of Pennsylvania, other states and countries in an effort to improve the Keystone state system.

If, after a fair period of trial, the Pennsylvania store system proves unsatisfactory, the governor said he would be the first to recommend changes. In vetoing the bill, he said:

"All profits from these stores will go for the highest purposes—old age assistance, unemployment relief, other welfare work, and the running of Pennsylvania's government."

Best Method
"I believe that the great majority of Pennsylvania's citizens agree with me that the Pennsylvania state liquor store system is the best means yet devised in the nation to protect a commonwealth from the evils of both the bootlegger and the wide open saloon. I believe that any commission set up to study the laws of other states and countries at this time would be unnecessary because the present system was devised after just such study and after thorough conferences which took into consideration every interest of our commonwealth."

Democratic Committee Shake-Up Not Ended Yet

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Reverberations of the Democratic national committee shake-up occasioned after President Roosevelt bluntly indicated he thinks congressional members should not practice law here, increased today.

With four committee resignations already revealed since the furore started, the latest and most tempting morsel which capital politicians settled upon involved Arthur Mullen, committeeman from Nebraska.

Mullen is one of those members of the committee who have set up law offices here, with a lucrative business. The president feels that anyone in this position unduly and personally is unconsciously trades upon his official status as an administration officer.

The 42 hours following revelation of the president's testing brought announcement of four resignations—and a statement from Mullen that

BOY SCOUT Activities

SCOUT LEADERS GATHER

The north district Scout Leaders club met at the Second U. P. church last night with Ray Zeigler as host. Scoutmaster President Sid Smith presided at the opening, later turning over the meeting to the Headquarters Troop organization, of which Jack Hamsworth is scoutmaster.

Various matters of old business were handled, and then the annual achievement program was taken up; Hawk presenting the committee report. After some discussion the men approved the program, this to take effect as of January 1. The changes in the program will be incorporated in a new set of rules to be prepared by the council office. Men present last night made the changes on their own sets and will use these until the new sets come out.

Anniversary Week program were discussed and planned for in some of the details. The men agreed that a "Scouter Ladies' Night" on the 12th of February would be worth while, and Dr. Lutz and Ray Zeigler will proceed with plans for it. Mr. Perver, scout outfitter, spoke on his part in scouting and was well received. "Doc" McCulloch made some good points in relation to certain merit badge work. The local Girl Scout unit served refreshments during the evening, and at a late hour the meeting broke up; after having tendered a vote of thanks to the Second United Presbyterian church for its hospitality. New men present last night were Messrs. McCulloch, Campbell, Miller, Hay, Booth and Brest. Jack Wilson spoke of holding the February meeting in the Croton M. E. church if favorable dates for both groups could be obtained. A good deal of work was outlined for the Headquarters Troop during the coming year.

MASON'S PAY PROTEST

SETTLED, IS REPORT

Satisfactory settlement of a wage protest made last summer by bricklayers on New Castle's new post office job was announced Thursday by John J. Gleeson, Washington, D. C., international president of the bricklayers' union, it was learned here today.

The bricklayers, it is understood, will return to work just as soon as the government's order to halt the stone work is lifted. The entire job is idle at the present time.

The dispute involved back wages of the masons.

he had no intention of resigning. After this statement Postmaster Jas. Farley let it be known he would have a talk with Mullen when the latter returns to Washington from a western trip.

At the same time the administration let it be known it looks with favor upon the bill of Senator Vandenberg (R) of Michigan, proposing to outlaw all legislative and governmental activities holding political positions similar to committee posts.

The Vandenberg bill would make it a felony for any member of a party national committee to appear before a governmental department or attempt in any way to influence any federal action.

The president's blast at lawyer-politicians also placed Farley "on the spot" but he has assured friends he will resign his post as Democratic national leader "within a year" or as soon as the next congressional election results are known.

Weight Must Be Shown On Slips To Fuel Buyers

New Weighmaster's Law Hopes To Prevent Alleged Shortage Frauds

WEIGHMASTERS MUST BE LICENSED

HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Purchasers of coal, coke, petroleum coke, briquettes and other solid fuels may hereafter be expected to receive weigh slips telling them the kind of fuel and the amount they have purchased. The new practice will be brought about by the approval by Governor Pinchot of the weighmaster's bill passed by the recent session of the legislature.

The act provides for the licensing of weighmasters and provides further that no solid fuel may be delivered unless the truck driver presents the weigh slip to the purchaser of the fuel.

Under the provisions of the measure, every mine and seller of coal in Pennsylvania must have a licensed weighmaster stationed at the scales on the respective properties. Weighmasters will be required to fill out a form showing the name and address of the seller, the name and address of the purchaser, the kind of fuel, gross, tare and net pounds in addition to the signature and license number of the weighmaster. The bill was introduced in the legislature by Representative C. C. A. Baldi, Philadelphia, in the hope of stopping alleged short weighing of coal.

The new act provides that weighmasters must be licensed by the bureau of standard weights and measures of the Pennsylvania Department of Internal Affairs and announcement was made today by Secretary Phillip H. Dewey that machinery already has been set up in his department for the immediate issuance of licenses. Application forms have been prepared and will be forwarded to license applicants immediately. The license fee is five dollars and the license is valid for three years.

Coal loaded on trucks or wagons for delivery to a purchaser must first pass over the scales of the weighmaster who, in turn, issues a certificate setting forth the correct weight of the load. The legal weight of any solid fuel is two thousand pounds to the ton and a tolerance of thirty pounds is allowed under the act. Any driver who permits his load to be diminished after receiving a weight certificate shall be held to be guilty of larceny, under the provisions of the measure.

City and county sealers of weights and measures may at any time direct the driver of a truck hauling solid fuel for delivery to the nearest accurate available scale. This provision in the act gives local authorities an opportunity to check weights in the same manner as at present.

Certificates, the law states, are not required when coal or any other solid fuel is purchased in boatload or carload lots by one individual, firm or corporation.

Emergency Corps To Be A Model

(International News Service) MERCER, Pa., Jan. 19.—Expected to be the model for similar units throughout the commonwealth, Mercer county's American Legion has completed plans for an emergency corps to give trained aid in cases of disasters and to assist officers of the law on short notice.

The Mercer county American Legion emergency corps will be able to supply 360 trained rescue workers, 275 trucks, 235 other automobiles, 24 ambulances, 49 nurses and 110 qualified first aid workers when needed, according to legion officials.

Members of the Rose o' Sharon class of the Croton M. E. Sunday school, taught by Mrs. Fred Hill, banqueted the Dependable Bible class of the same church, taught by H. F. Those who assisted with the dinner arrangements, were Mrs. Phil Benninghoff, Mrs. Fred Hill, Mrs. Claire Locke, Mrs. Clarence Reiber, and Mrs. Vane Johns.

Sucker Fishing Growing Popular

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Jan. 12.—The ever increasing popularity of winter sucker fishing in Pennsylvania is creating a fairly brisk demand for 1934 fishing licenses, according to reports from county treasurers to the fish commission.

The orange and black buttons have been placed on sale in every county treasurers office so that sucker fishers can obtain their licenses without delay.

Particles of broken glass may be picked up easily by covering them with a wooden cloth. Pat down gently until every bit of glass is stuck to the cloth, then burn the cloth.

Foresters Keep Athletics Alive

Basketball Popular Sport In C. C. Camp—News Of Doings

By VICTOR DRIVER (Special To The News)

CAMP RALPH H. HILL, ELIMSPORT, Pa., Jan. 19.—After having their schedule altered several times, due to adverse circumstances, the camp basketball team has at last begun its belated 1934 program. As they did not enter the sectional C. C. league because of conflicting conditions, they will however encounter stronger teams by arranging games with the cream of the local industrial leagues. While there is but one New Castle representative on this team, nevertheless he has made himself very evident both in the scoring role and as a defensive ace. He is John Hill, prominent North Hill athlete, who is very successfully holding down a regular forward job. This past summer he performed brilliantly on the base ball diamond and is intent on turning in as impressive a record on the hardwood.

Two nights later our team again took to the hard floor eager to avenge for the bitter defeat they had met in their initial game. This time the foresters again were the underdogs, for they had the strong Montgomery Alumni as the opponents, but with the sting of defeat still fresh these under-rated basketballers out-fought and out-witted these veterans of the hardwood and as they gradually drew to a close ahead and when the final whistle blew found themselves leading the ex-high school stars by a score of 19-15. Hill and Lotka again were the best camp performers with Stewart as the big gun for the Alumni.

Still there remained another team to be faced in their opening week. The opponents this time was none other than the Champion Sweet Steel team of Williamsport who had already swept three teams along on their advance towards another championship. Jubilant with the thought of one victory to their credit, it the camp athletes decided they would extend it one more. So with this in mind they fought an up hill battle and outscored the steel hoop artists 30-20 (in favor of the camp team.) George Kreps of Greenville collected sixteen points for high scorer of the contest. Lotka again played a spectacular game on the defense with King playing a fine game at the center position for the opposition.

Dinner-Dance Coming

The date of the much planned dinner-dance, this is to be held in the new recreation building, is drawing close. The menu will include chicken and ice cream as well as several other palatable dishes. After dinner all will turn to a pleasant dance period with a prominent Williamsport orchestra furnishing the music.

Attendance at the regular religious services held each Sunday afternoon in the spacious dining room is quite heavy and the last Sunday turnout was no exception.

We have read much about the thrills received by riding the surf boards and again of the intense excitement obtained by sliding down a steep mountain side on skis, but if you desire a thrill that you'll long remember, pleasant or otherwise, just board a truck that is traveling on a muddy highway and is not provided with rear fenders or mud guards. This we do quite often while enroute to work, mind you I said going to the place where the work is found. Perhaps you think it is plain foolishness to take this baptism of mud but the bright spot, think of that, of the affair is that when you have arrived at the working area you will be uniform in appearance and as the day wears away the boss can't decide who has gold bricked or who has gold backed.

UNDULANT FEVER

HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Forty-nine cases of undulant fever were reported to the State Department of Health in 1933. This is a slightly higher rise than the few preceding years and is explained on the theory that there is a more frequent recognition of the disease than in the past. This malady is caused by the consumption of unpasteurized milk from cows suffering with contagious abortion scientifically known as Bang's disease.

Youthful Business Man Outdoes Midas, Is Now Millionaire

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Midas-like paper profits of $29,107,512 made by a youthful business adventurer on a $207 investment in a company selling airplane engines to the navy were handed Thursday by the senate committee investigating air mail contracts.

Actual cash profits of $7,800,000 were made on this $207 investment. The witness, George J. Mead, explained that he still owns 25,000 shares worth nearly a million dollars, obtained through his investment.

New Millionaire Mead's jump from poverty to the rank of multi-millionaire was achieved in 18 months. Along with F. B. Rentschler, he organized the Pratt and Whitney Airplane Co., on a total capitalization of $1,000.

The company issued 5,000 shares of stock, of which the Pratt and Whitney Machine Tool Co. took 2,500, Rentschler 1,375 and Mead 1,125. In December, 1926, C. W. Deeds was taken into the business, with $43 worth of stock at 20 cents per share. "The company wasn't worth anything then," said Mead. "We had no assets except our experience."

"We were using a rented shed to build airplane engines."

Several minor automobile accidents occurred in the city yesterday, according to reports of automobilists made to the traffic division of the police department. Automobiles operated by Ruth G.

Johnson Makes Plea To Nation For NRA Support

Gen. Johnson Says Forces
At Work To Have Congress Legislate NRA Repeal

JOHNSON SPEAKS
IN NEW YORK CITY

Says Return To Old Form Of Business Would Mean
Disaster For Country

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Warning that "a distinct movement" to repeal the national industrial recovery act is afoot in congress today lay before the nation, coupled with the prediction from Brig. Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, national recovery administrator, that success of such a move "might be one of the greatest political mistakes."

Addressing the National Retail Dry Goods Association at its annual dinner, Johnson assailed those who "would scuttle the whole recovery program," denied that the NRA is fostering the interests of monopolies at the expense of small business, asserted the country is on the road to recovery and outlined the intention of recovery chiefs to move for wage increases and reduction of hours of work throughout American industry.

Storm Brewing.
"A storm is brewing," Johnson told the retailers, "a typical attempt to whip up opposition where it may count amongst the greatest numbers. I refer to the claim that NRA oppresses 'the little fellow' and promotes monopoly."

It oppresses people who are not willing to accord decent wages and proper human labor and I am willing to take any man to the hustings on that statement, including these professional dialecticians whose chief activity is criticism of the recovery program."

Although he did not mention them by name, Johnson replied to the attack made in the senate Thursday by Senators Borah, of Idaho, and Nye, of North Dakota, who charged that NRA codes were bankrupting small concerns and creating the greatest monopolistic system in history.

Johnson told of "those who were invited to sit in" with the recovery administration, but refused "preferring to sit on the sidelines and conjure up evil."

"They had their chance to speak but they didn't want it then," he declared.

Two Alternatives.
Pleading with the retailers to observe their codes and to "recrify" those who chafed under NRA codes, the recovery chief said the country faces two courses:

"One is to put another man in my job. Doubtless there are thousands who could do it better."

"The other alternative is to go back to the old system—and God help the country if we do."

Affairs

(International News Service)
VIENNA, Jan. 19.—Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss launched a vigorous war against Austrian Nazism today and at the same time warned Germany she would be ostracized by other nations if she continues her "unauthorized interference in Austrian domestic affairs."

The warning was delivered in a speech before the Christian Socialist parliamentary club in which Dollfuss for the first time extended the hand of friendship to the social Democrats.

He urged a United Austria to fight the Nazis.

WORKED NEW RACKET IN ROBBERY GUESTS

(International News Service)
DETROIT, Jan. 19.—The obliging gentleman who tended the door and helped guests with their wraps at the house party of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hackman was not the butler or a friend of the family. As he smilingly led guests into the living room his companion relieved them of their valuables at the point of the gun. The bandits had gained entrance on the pretext of wishing to see Mr. Hackman who was not home at the time.

EARLY BREAKFAST FOR HARVARD FROSH

(International News Service)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 19.—The freshman class at Harvard has turned "soft."

The "Freshies" demanded that they be allowed to eat breakfast at 9:00 a. m. instead of 8:30 as they do now, but their prayers weren't answered and the officials of the Harvard Union refused their request. Because the upperclassmen are al-

QUARTER FOR NICKEL AFTER MANY YEARS

(International News Service)
DENVER, Jan. 19.—C. W. Harris, Denver railroad employee, will attest to the honesty of Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the reconstruction finance corporation in Washington, D. C. As a boy, 25 years ago, Harris was selling papers on the streets of Houston, Texas. Jones bought a paper and forgot to pay for it. Harris's son recently wrote to Jones and reminded him of the nickel debt. Jones sent a quarter by return mail to pay the debt plus compound interest.

Game Kill Last Fall Is Larger

Big Increase Shown In Number Of Deer And Bear Killed In State

MANY MORE WILD
TURKEYS BAGGED

Even hard times cannot curb the enthusiasm of the hunters as records of the recent game season show. Ernest E. Harwood, executive secretary of the State Game Commission in an announcement today candidly admitted that the large game kill exceeded his expectations. A total of 20,480 legal deer were taken, slightly higher than during the preceding season when 19,724 were bagged. Of this number 4,172 were two-points; 5,075 were three-points; 6,587 were four-points; and 4,646 were five-points and over. The kill of bears took a big jump. Mr. Harwood said, 586 legal animals being taken in comparison with 216 the year before. Conditions, generally, including an early tracking snow, was responsible for this excellent bag, although it is believed that more nimrods actually hunted bear this season than ever before. Thirty bears were killed illegally.

Although the season on elk was closed, some hunters apparently have to learn the difference between these creatures and deer for 3 of them were killed illegally of course. The bag of wild turkeys also showed a satisfactory increase, 3,518 having been taken. Last season only 2,992 were killed.

It is understood, Mr. Harwood announced, that these figures, while fairly accurate are subject to change after complete tabulations of the kill are made.

Co-operative State Bill Is Approved

Italian Chamber Of Deputies Pass Bill Created By Premier Mussolini

(International News Service)

ROME, Jan. 19.—By a vote of 350 to 0, the Italian chamber of deputies passed Premier Mussolini's bill for a corporative state, thereby signing its own death warrant.

The measure previously had passed the senate by unanimous vote. It transfers legislative authority to a guild of corporations.

Cheers greeted the announcement of the result of the vote. A governmental decree dissolving the chamber is expected shortly.

After a chorus of affirmative shouts all members rose and cheered Premier Mussolini, who arose, beaming.

"Prior to our parting," said Il Duce, "I wish to say that you have served well the Fascist revolution and the cause for which we are all ready to fight with all our arms, always and everywhere."

On Court House Hill

Will of the late Franklin B. Marshall of Perry township, has been admitted to probate at the register and recorder's office. Under his will Mr. Marshall left his property to his wife, Mary Marshall, for life. At her death the real estate is to go to a son, James F. Marshall, provided that he pays his sisters, Mrs. Elsie May Aggy, and Mrs. Alice Brady $500 each. Steel stock, if held at the time of Mrs. Marshall's death, is to be divided equally among the children.

What has become of the project to erect an armory on a site in Union township, purchased some time ago by the county commissioners? At the time the purchase was made those who were pushing the project claimed that money would be secured from the state and the armory would be built at once. In fact it was urged upon the county commissioners at the time that if the county would provide the site, it would be a means of employing a considerable amount of labor. It was also contended that the building would be erected largely from materials furnished by Lawrence county industries. For some reason the project seemed to drop with the purchase of the land. The county commissioners are wondering why.

Letters of administration in the estate of the late Clara E. Zehner, have been issued at the register and recorder's office to Cora E. Zehner.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard has been successful in collecting some fines and costs due the county since 1920. On two processes which have been issued against persons who owed the county he has collected about $250, and on another $114. Efforts will be made to collect a number of other similar outstanding accounts.

William Haering, night watchman at the court house, is peculiarly interested in the Wynkoop murder trial now on at Chicago. Mr. Haering has a brother, George Haering, who has a drug store at the corner of Jefferson and Madison streets in Chicago, adjoining the Wynkoop property. Mr. Haering has seen the principals in the tragedy while on visits to his brother in Chicago.

When the court house clock strikes do you know that the clapper strikes a bell weighing 1200 pounds? This bell is located about ten feet below the machinery of the clock. Special machinery had to be constructed to operate the striking apparatus. The bell, according to an inscription on it was cast by A. Fulton, of Pittsburgh in 1851. It was put up in the court house tower shortly after the court house was completed in 1852.

For many years it was rung when court was called in session, and also when murder juries were ready to report. The ringing was the signal for citizens to flock to the court house to hear the verdict. A special weight, which operates the striking

Catch Cold Easily?

Don't be that worst pest of all—the chronic sufferer from colds, who passes germs on to friends or family. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery builds up the stomach and the blood so that the entire system feels the beneficial effect. Joseph Percy of 1055 French St., Meadville, Pa., says: "Sometimes when I become drowsy, tired, catch cold easily and my appetite slows up, a few doses of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery soon seems to put new life in my body. I have used it for a number of years and have recommended it to others." Sold by all druggists.

apparatus, weighs 950 pounds. The weights which operate the clock weigh 500 pounds.

The clock was put up about 1895 when Stewart Thompson, R. M. Eckles and W. W. Morrison were county commissioners. It is wound once a week, the winding being in charge of Freeman E. C. McCracken. For many years Prothonotary R. M. Campbell attended to the winding of the clock. It is wound by means of a big crank, like is used on a grindstone.

The clock itself does not look anything like the machinery of a clock, as most people know it. It is a simple looking contrivance, set on a bench about three feet high. The machinery consists of a number of cog wheels of different sizes. From the machine four arms, about eight feet long, extend to the dials of the four faces of the clock. These all turn simultaneously, and at regular speeds, so that the hands on all four of the dials register the same time.

At night the dials of the clock are lighted up by a special automatic clock which turns on electricity at the proper time. The machinery has been so adjusted that the clock keeps very good time. Many clocks and watches are set by it every day. Those who cannot see the dials set their time pieces when they hear the bell chiming out the hour. The late John Libendorfer was contractor, and John Bestwick, was a carpenter on the job when changes in the belfry, necessary to install the clock were made.

GRASS BETTER FOR FREQUENT CUTTING

(International News Service)

BURLINGTON, Vt., Jan. 19.—The oftener that ordinary pasture grass is cut, the higher its content of calcium and phosphorus. These discoveries were made at the University of Vermont agricultural experiment station where it was found from a study of 96 samples of grass plucked from various sections of the state that such grass was highly nutritious and abundantly supplied with minerals.

PULASKI

CLASS HAS PARTY

One of the most pleasant events of the week was held at the Presbyterian manse on Tuesday afternoon, when the Elizabeth Parsons Bible class of the Presbyterian Sunday school were entertained by their teacher, Mrs. Parsons, and sister, Miss Burdette Stevenson. It was also in celebration of the third anniversary of the organization of the class. A business meeting over which the president, Mrs. Dorris L. Fulkman, presided, was held.

The annual opening of the birthday box was greatly enjoyed. Two poems which were composed by Miss Stevenson were read by her and Mrs. Fulkman. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses. A birthday cake with two candles formed the centerpiece, and a social time was enjoyed. Mrs. W. P. Scott and Mrs. Mary Jennings are hostesses for the meeting in February.

Speaking before a group of real estate men, Van Dyke said: "Real estate is carrying the big load of taxation in Pennsylvania. If nothing is done to reduce this burden people in the future will see their incomes diminishing."

THOUSANDS OF SEEDS GROW EARLY PLANTS

It will soon be time to start early vegetable plants in greenhouses, window boxes, hotbeds and other forcing structures. In ordering seed it is important to know how much seed is needed to grow a definite number of plants.

There are 8,000 cabbage seeds in an ounce which should produce about 3,000 or 4,000 good early plants. An ounce of tomato seed contains 6,000 seeds which should produce 3,500 tomato plants sufficient to plant an acre. More seed is necessary if the plants are grown outdoors. There are 4,500 pepper seeds in an ounce, enough to grow about 3,000 plants which will be sufficient for one-half acre. One ounce of lettuce seed contains 23,000 seeds, sufficient to furnish 12,000 plants for one-third of an acre. Celery contains 70,000 seeds an ounce which will grow 7,000 plants in the greenhouse. More seed is required if the plants are raised in the open.

COMPARE SEED POTATOES 13-078 TIMES IN STATE

Disease-free potato seed from recognized and approved sources has been compared with local seed 13,078 times in extension demonstrations throughout the state since these projects were started.

An average increase of 51.7 bushels an acre in favor of the disease-free seed has been obtained. Adult growers have had an average increase of 55.9 bushels while 4-H club members have grown 47.1 bushels an acre more with disease-free seed than with local seed.

During the past year the club members had the better average, 54 bushels, while adult growers produced an increase of 51.4 bushels in favor of disease-free seed.

CHEESE CAN BE MADE AT HOME FROM SURPLUS MILK

Cheese making at home is proving to be an interesting and profitable sideline. With surplus milk bringing low prices and local markets asking as high as 20 cents per pound for American cheese, the housewife can by turning the milk into cheese often double its value.

A recent demonstration in Clarion county proves this point, for according to County Agent F. K. Miller of Clarion, a farm group made 10 pounds of cheese from 70 pounds of 4 per cent milk. The milk was worth 98 cents at the receiving station, and cheese was selling that day for 20 cents per pound. The rennet and cheese cloth costs amounted to 13 cents and the only equipment used was a copper wash boiler on a stove, a stirring spoon, a long knife and a home-made cheese press.

These home-made American cheeses can be made in less than five hours. It has been proved that they will keep and ripen into good tasty cheeses. They are valuable as a source of protein in the family diet both because they are inexpensive and because they consist of about 30 per cent milk protein, which is especially beneficial for growing children.

NEED GOOD SOIL FOR GROWING EARLY PLANTS

Properly prepared soil is of prime importance for the growing of early plants in hotbeds and flats. Manure compost is conveniently made in the early summer. The manure is piled in flat heaps about 3 or 4 feet high, 6 to 8 feet wide, and any length. When needed, water is added to start fermenting and additional watering may be necessary during the fermentation period to prevent burning of fire fang. Turning the pile several times during the season is required. By fall the manure should be well decayed for use in the soil mixture.

Soil compost is made in a similar manner as manure compost, except that different ingredients are used. One method consists of using alternate layers manure and garden loam or layers of manure, sod and garden loam. During the process of turning the pile, the layers become mixed and a fine soil is produced for plant growing purposes.

A good soil mixture can be produced by mixing manure compost with garden loam, half and half. If soil compost is not available a good artificial soil mixture may be made by using one-third rotten manure, one-third sand and one-third loam, or one-fourth rotten manure, one-fourth sand and one-half loam, or one-half rotten manure and one-half loam. Leaf mold from the woods may be substituted if rotten manure is not available. The soil mixture should have from one-third to one-half organic matter. Such a soil will be friable, will not bake at the surface, will hold moisture well and will produce a good root system.

STOLEN CAR FOUND AFTER YEAR'S SEARCH

(International News Service) NORTH READING, Mass., Jan. 19.—A few days more than a year after a brand new automobile had been stolen from an agency here, Chief of Police Thomas Crowell found it abandoned and without registration plates. It was traced through the engine number, and turned over to the insurance company, which had paid a claim on the automobile to the agency. It had been driven 20,000 miles.

Speaking of spring fashions, there is a decided tendency toward dark printed cottons. They will be worn also at the southern resort.

Research having established the fact that the daily use of the typewriter in the lower grades of school stimulates the children's interest in spelling, composition and reading, and reduces behavior problems, Dr. Ralph Haefner, Ph. D., New York, has just written and had published a typewriter textbook for school children. It is titled, "Ted and Polly," and is the first publication of its kind. It is worded simply, every word coming from the vocabulary of an average child in the first three grades of school.

Senior High School News

Mid-Year 'Ne-Ca-Hi' To Carry Modernistic Theme

All Senior high school students, and particularly the Senior A's, are eagerly awaiting their first glimpse of the January issue of the "Ne-Ca-Hi," traditional year book of graduating classes, for rumor hath it that it's an exceptionally fine publication.

It is to be an up-to-the-minute, modernistic year book. The modernistic touch begins with the outside cover which is to be carried out in the January class colors of blue and silver. Under the direction of Miss Bess Gallely art supervisor of the school and faculty advisor for the mid-year graduate, the art staff has worked diligently to carry out in the artistic decorations the theme of communication and transportation, around which the book centers.

As for the students comprising the literary staff, they have worked day and night to turn out new and original features, humor galore, amusing pictures and snapshots, and real honest-to-goodness poetry—and the January class doesn't lack what you call poetic talent.

Pictorially speaking, also, the January "Ne-Ca-Hi" will be most interesting, for besides the pictures of the faculty and seniors, it will contain picture of the various school organizations and activities, as well as "baby pictures" of the seniors and snapshots. A page of cartoons is to be another outstanding feature.

It is to the following staff that credit for the new book is due: Editor-in-chief, Marian Berglund; associate editor, Pauline Manos, business manager, George W. Conway, Jr.; assistant business manager, Howard Rumbaugh; typist, Ruth Matheus; literary staff, Robert Al-

Grand Champion Baby Beef King Named At Show

Fred Myers, Jr., Of Mechanicsburg, Pa., Wins Grand Prize With Hereford

STEWART STRAW HORSESHOE CHAMP

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Crowning of the 1934 grand champion baby beef claimed the spotlight of the closing day of Pennsylvania's 18th annual farm show today.

A 860-pound Hereford, owned by Fred Myers, Jr., of Mechanicsburg, captured the title, giving Cumberland county its fifth such championship in eight years of competition.

Competing with seven other future farmers including his sister, Sara, the youth carried off the title with his baby beef which also won the judges' decision yesterday as the best Hereford exhibited in its class at the show. The grand champion also holds the blue ribbon of the Cumberland County Club.

Stewart Straw, of Berwindale, Clearfield county, won the state title in the ancient barnyard pastime of horseshoe pitching.

In a tense tossing duel with Park Wilson, of Hickory, Washington county, Straw, champion in 1931 and 1932, pitched 30 ringers of which 7 were doubled in the first game. His opponent tossed 24, three of them doubles.

In the second and deciding match, Straw repeated his performance of the first game and pitched 30 ringers of which five were double ringers. Wilson pitched 3 ringers of which four were double ringers. The score was 50 to 28.

Farm Credit Administration Reports $2,768,200 Loaned In Pennsylvania

By ARTHUR C. WIMER, Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—During the period of May to December inclusive, last year, federal land banks and land bank commissioners loaned $2,768,200 to Pennsylvania farmers, the Farm Credit Administration reports.

During the period, 442 state farmers borrowed $1,179,300 directly from the land banks. In addition, 918 got loans totaling $1,588,900 from agents of the land bank commissioner. This brought the total loans to $2,768,200 advanced to $1,360 farmers during the eight month period. Such loans amounted to $1,395,200 in West Virginia and $4,362,500 in Ohio. Pennsylvania ranked twenty-first of the forty-eight states in the amount of such borrowings.

Pressure Was Used By U. S. In Fighting Insull

Attorney For Former Utilities Magnate Makes Charges

EXTRADITION TO U. S. IS PROBABLE

ATHENS, Jan. 19.—The American legation brought diplomatic pressure upon the Greek government to force Samuel Insull to leave Greece, Pericles Rhalis, attorney for the former utilities magnate charged before the Greek state council today.

The council convened to hear Insull's appeal against the government's refusal to extend his residence permit beyond January 31, which automatically would compel him to leave the country.

Insull's deportation, Rhalis said, means his surrender to American authorities to face indictments charging fraudulent bankruptcy in connection with the collapse of his vast utilities empire. Insull can go to no other country, Rhalis stated.

Would Welcome Capital Change

President Favors Divorce Of Office Holders And Politicians Frow Law Practice

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—President Roosevelt would welcome legislation designed to make a clean sweep in divorcing politicians and officeholders from the practice of law in Washington.

The president has not yet seen a copy of the Vandenberg bill which would start this work, but indications were that Mr. Roosevelt's only concern lies in the question of how far this bill goes. The president is more than ever aroused over legal activities of Washingtonians who have been or are connected with political parties or governmental services.

Resignations of three national committeemen engaged in law practice within recent days have only partially satisfied the executive. He wants a thorough job done in this connection.

Actually four national committeemen have resigned recently but one of the resignations—that of Frank C. Walker national committee treasurer—was in no way connected with the lawyer-politician furor.

Snell Attacks Gold Bill In House Speech

Excoriates Majority In House For Speed Shown In Gold Bill Legislation

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The huge Democratic majority in the house was excoriated as "the most spineless majority that ever sat in this chamber" by Rep. Snell (R) of New York today in protesting against the speed demanded in the passage of the gold legislation.

"No one knows what is in this bill" said Snell, who is the minority leader. "The majority is the most spineless majority that ever sat in the chamber. I am opposed to passing legislation this way without properly considering it."

Hockey Star Takes One Drink, Finds Himself In Court

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Jan. 19.—John Deni, nationally known hockey player, today found out for himself the cost of his first drink of liquor.

Deni was hauled into magistrate's court and fined $10 or ten days in jail when it was found he had given away a friend's $275 raccoon coat to a girl.

The transfer of property occurred during a hockey game. Deni testified that he had taken a drink and didn't know anything after that.

Eight Gunmen In New York Seized

Policeman James J. Carney Is Among Henchmen Of "Dutch" Schultz Captured

GUN FIGHT ON FIFTH AVENUE

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Gunmen in the mob of Dutch Schultz, missing Bronx beer baron wanted by the government for income tax evasion, raked an upper Fifth avenue restaurant with bullets early today and then were captured in a desperate attempt to escape. The shooting was inspired by the cut-throat competition between policy game operators of Harlem.

Among the eight men seized was Policeman James J. Carney. He was in citizen's clothes when arrested and his service revolver, chambers empty, lay on the floor beside him.

Several Wounded

John Sykes, with a bullet in his neck received from the revolver of one of the pursuing detectives, was dying in a hospital.

Sykes was driving the automobile which contained some of the fugitives.

Two employees of the restaurant, Eugene Rivera and Frank Diaz, were wounded by the gunmen.

A police radio car heard the shooting and sped to the scene in time to pick up fleeing automobile.

Policeman Surrenders

When they caught the machine and threw open the door, Carney is alleged to have said:

"Don't shoot—I'm a policeman, too."

Carney said he had been to a party and that his gun had been unloaded.

The shooting heightened the intensity of the search for Schultz.

NOT ALL SEA LIONS HAVE ACTING TALENT

(International News Service) ST. LOUIS, Jan. 19.—Even as you and I, sea lions vary in talent and ability. Of five California sea lions put into training at the St. Louis Zoo for exhibition purposes, only one—Fifi—proved a star. Another seemed capable of advanced training.

The remaining three, and zoo officials think perhaps they're not so dumb, have been sent back to the pool to devote their time to diving, barking and eating.

Secrecy Must Rule Fund Of Two Billions

Policy Of President From Day To Day Should Not Be Made Public, Is Belief

CONGRESS TO ACT EARLY NEXT WEEK

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Secrecy must rule operations of the two billion dollar stabilization fund carried in the administration's gold bill, Chairman Somers (D) of New York of the House coinage committee declared today.

With this declaration he served notice of opposition to proposals to limit the vast power conferred on the secretary of the treasury in the bill.

"The effectiveness of the dollar stabilization fund depends upon how it is operated, and it cannot be operated successfully if the policy of the President is known from day to day," said Somers.

Provision Opposed

Somers opposed a provision approved by the Senate banking committee requiring reports on operations of the fund to Congress.

Somers asserted that Congress should pass the gold bill by the middle of next week and arm the President with the $2,000,000,000 fund to prevent foreign manipulation of the dollar to the disadvantage of this country.

The coinage committee, which will ask the House to pass the bill tomorrow, had expected to hold hearings beginning this morning. Many distinguished economists declined invitations to appear, but a brief hearing was scheduled later in the day and the Senate banking committee also will open its doors for a public hearing.

COUPLE 15 AND 13 GRANTED DIVORCE

(International News Service)

WARSAW, Jan. 19.—Poland has established a new world record for divorce among youngsters.

Pince Morgenstern, 15, and his wife, Laja Morgenstern, 13, recently were divorced.

They both are children of two "Wonder Rabbis," and were married last year amid great festivities. All the local rabbis attended, and many congratulatory cables came from American and English rabbis as well.

It is rather common among Orthodox Jews in Poland to marry so young, but this is the first instance of a divorce at the precocious age.

Roosevelt Plans For Regulating Of Stock Market

President About Ready To Ask Congress Legislate
To Curb Speculation

COMMITTEE IS MAKING STUDY

Wants Laws Which Will Tend To Stabilize And
Steady OperationsBy EDWARD B. LOCKETT
International News Service, Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON Jan. 19.—President Roosevelt is about ready to pass the word to Congress for speeding legislation to curb speculation and further regulate stock market transactions.

The president expects a report on specific proposals along this line from the committee named by Secretary of Commerce Roper within a few days. White House action will follow after the executive has studied the report.

The president regards legislation to curb undue speculation as an integral and vital part of his road monetary policy. He was indicated many times that he feels tremendous upward and downward swings of the market—based on manipulations rather than values—to be seriously detrimental to the nation. With this in view, the president wants legislation which will tend to stabilize and steady financial operations in line with basic values of the commodities on which such operations are built.

In this connection, the president has been giving considerable study to the operation of the securities act, designed to safe guard the public against worthless securities. His latest studies have convinced him more than ever that it should remain in essentially as enacted.

Some minor changes in the administrative features of the act will be made at the present session of Congress. None of the basic principles of the act will be affected, however.

The securities act, incidentally, was the subject of a lengthy White House conference yesterday. The president called in administration finance chiefs for an hour's discussion of the act. Sentiment was almost unanimous that the measure is proving of tremendous value, and that it should be left alone.

Beer Garden In Pittsburgh Area Wrecked By Bomb

(International News Service)
McKEESPORT, Pa., Jan. 19.—Racket violence, the first in Allegheny county since repeal of prohibition, was recorded today with the bombing of a local beer garden. After questioning Mrs. Hannah Garity, 45, proprietress of the establishment, police said they were confident that rivals in the whiskey and beer business had set off the bomb as "some sort of warning."

Another woman and two men customers of the beer dispensary escaped injury when the blast rattled the building.

Paying Of Bill Is Questioned

City Controller Sends Solicitor's Letter To Council
On Matter

Earl Wimer, city controller, today presented to city council, which met in City Hall, a communication given him by Solicitor Robert M. White relative to the purchase of approximately $1,000 worth of tools by the city for the civil works administration employees here.

The letter said the purchase, in his mind, was wrong. White informed Wimer that, in his opinion, the bill cannot be paid. The goods were bought last December from a Pittsburgh firm.

The bill amounts to about $1,000, the latter said, and added that this amount covers several distinct orders. No single order, however, amounted to $500. White added that the purchases were made so close together that it constituted an evasion of the law, which says no purchase costing $500 or over can be made without advertising for bids and the award going to the lowest responsible bidder.

In his letter to Wimer the solicitor said that he recommended as a remedy that council advertise for bids for the same materials and purchase them from the lowest bidder, then return the goods so purchased in exchange for the tools bought in December.

After the opinion had been read Mayor Mayne remarked that the goods had been purchased in a hurry. Several days ago former Purchasing Agent L. G. Genkinger said that the CWA had anticipated putting 1,000 men to work and wanted tools for them, and in order to have tools for the men they had to be purchased quickly.

Councilman David O. Davies moved that the communication be presented to Wimer and later read to council should be sent to committee for further consideration.

First Aid Class For CWA Workers Will Start Monday

Forty Men Will Be Given Instruction In First Aid Under Red Cross

CWA workers on various jobs about the city will be given a course of instruction in first aid work under the supervision of the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross.

The classes will be under the supervision of Ralph F. Davis, chairman of first aid for the Lawrence County Chapter, who is now selecting a capable group of instructors. Approximately 40 men will take the course of instruction.

The classes will be held in city council chambers, starting Monday evening, between 7 and 10 o'clock.

Leaps On Truck; Legs Fractured

John Scifuse Of R. F. D. 4
Undergoing Treatment
In Hospital

John Scifuse, R. D. 4, is in the New Castle hospital, having had both legs broken Thursday afternoon when he is alleged to have leaped on the running board of Rieck Dairy company truck in Court street, according to the truck operator, L. O. Hoover.

According to Hoover, the man came from the north side of Court street, between Mulberry and Ray streets. He leaped to the running board, fell off and the rear wheels passed over his legs.

The driver of another truck which was passing stopped the truck and took Scifuse to the hospital.

Hoover claims he never saw the man prior to the accident.

Arrest Three In Connection With Numbers Lottery

Trio Leaves $350 As Forfeits
After Being Taken
By Police

Three men were placed under arrests here by city detectives Thursday afternoon on an open charge of suspicion for alleged connection with the operation of the numbers lottery in this city. The men were taken in tow and who placed forfeits were: Pete Chrissis $150, J. H. Woods, $100 and E. B. Cassachia $100. They did not appear for a police court hearing today. The forfeits were confiscated. City detectives visited yesterday afternoon the coffee shop of Pete Chrissis and John Cassachia, East Long Avenue. J. H. Woods was inside the shop. Evidence, such as books for registering numbers was found in the place and in Woods' car, police say.

After being taken to the city police station Calas was given his freedom. The next place visited was the shop of E. B. Cassachia, Moravia street. It is alleged numbers slips were found in a wastepaper basket immediately outside the building. He was also taken to the police station and posted a forfeit.

New Castle And Ellwood To Play In League Game

Ellwood City High Comes To New Castle Tonight For League Engagement

Preliminary Game At Seven o'Clock At George Washington Junior High Floor

New Castle high school basketball team will have Ellwood City as their opponents tonight at the George Washington junior high gym. This is a section three league game. The New Castle high reserves will play in the preliminary game at 7 o'clock.

Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh will start his regular lineup with Battley and Ridley at the forwards and Kelly at center, with Reiber and Kominic at the guards. This combination will soon be busted up by graduation with Ridley and Battley stepping out, but Bridenbaugh has some good replacements in Tuscano, Pratt, Ostrosky and Nigro.

Locals On Top.
The New Castle team is riding the crest of the league today with two victories and no defeats. The local sons are tied with Butler high, also with two victories and no defeats. Butler engaged Beaver Falls tonight at Beaver Falls and may run into a fighting backhorne team that will stop them.

Ellwood City under Coach "Gandy" Benedict has been training hard this week for the New Castle game. Ellwood City is about due to hit a winning stride and it may be that the turn will come tonight. The Benedicts played a fine game against New Brighton the other evening and if they play the same brand of basketball here they will give the Pa. Newscasters a lot to worry about.

Following are the probable lineups of the two teams:

New Castle	Ellwood City
Battley	Robuck
Ridley	MacFadden
Kelly	Lamendo
Reiber	Bunney
Kominic	Vanderlo

Charley Grimm Must Produce Popular Chicago Cubs Manager Must Either Win Flag Or Find New Job

GRIMM CONFIDENT TEAM CAN WIN

By JOHN C. HOFFMAN
International News Service Sports Writer.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—It seems a little early, not to mention cruel, to fire an all right guy like Charlie Grimm from his job as manager of the Chicago Cubs in 1935, but it's just as Charlie himself says: "I've got to win—or else."

Now that the dismissal of a baseball manager when he has failed to win is calculated to startle anybody in the dead of night, but up in the palatial headquarters of the Cubs, where Charlie is predicting a pennant for the club today, he said: "I've got to win."

And woe to Charlie if, eight months hence, he says: "I didn't win."

Better Win.
But Charlie is so sure he will win that on one occasion he told it to William M. Walker, the new Cubs president, who made the significant comment:

"We'd better."

Substantiating his optimism, Grimm said:

"We can't miss. The lively ball will help Babe Herman, Cuyler, Stephenson and Klein. Billy Herman is due for a better year than he had in 1933."

Woody English hit 260 last year, and Woody is a natural 300 hitter. Cuyler was no good to us most of the season after he broke his ankle in the spring. Babe Herman was not the ball player he can be. I was a flop with my injured back. It's O. K. now. Bud Tinning is going to be a better pitcher."

Grimm made it definitely known that Chuck Klein will bat third in the lineup.

Another thing that Grimm wanted to make plain is that he will be "cracking down" on the boys once the pennant grind is under way.

Polish Falcons Top St. Marys

Falcons Hand St. Marys Team Of County Church League 31 To 15 Defeat

Polish Falcon basketball team handed the St. Marys team of the County Church League a defeat, 31 to 15 last night at the Falcon floor on Miller avenue. In the preliminary game the Yellow Jacket girls handed the Eintracht Maidens a 19 to 18 defeat, in a well played game.

It was an uphill fight for the Polish Falcons to take the victory. The score at the end of the first half was 13 to 9 with the Saints leading. The fine work of Shafic kept the Saints in the game during the first half. At the start of the second half the work of Budai put the Falcons on in front by a commanding lead, and they were soon in a comfortable lead. Budai with nine points was high-scoring man of the game, while Koszella, Sniezek, Shafic and Polejnick also played fine basketball. The Polish Falcons will go to New Kensington Saturday for a league game. The locals upset the New Ken team earlier in the season at the New Castle floor.

Not being satisfied with the terms offered by the Madison Square Garden boxing promoters, Anell Hoffman, manager of Max Baer, has refused to sign the heavyweight against Primo Carnera, heavyweight champion, for a titular bout in June.

Two points separated the winner and loser in one game, three points in another game and one point in a third game in the church league at the Y last night which shows without any shadow of a doubt the class of the game as being displayed by the church circuit aggregations.

Bill Tilden and Ellsworth Vines, Jr., played the sixth of their professional tennis affair last night at Cleveland. Big Bill and Ellsworth out the match to three sets and Ellsworth evened up the score at three matches all, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

Pete Postwick's American steeple-chaser, Blue Mirage, at odds of 7 to 1, yesterday won the Mortlake handicap hurdle race at two miles from Mrs. Burdette's Jonathan Buttol and six others. The purse was 100 pounds. L. Stoddard rode Blue Mirage.

Plan To Stage Six Amateur Bouts Here
Jefferson A. C. will hold another boxing show in Humbert Hall, January 29. Six bouts will be staged. Tony Adamo, the Jefferson A. C. standby will tackle Jimmy Dailey of Youngstown. The boys of Youngstown who will box against boys from Pennsylvania will be brought here by Vince Joyce, brother to Billy Joyce.

Slippery Rock And Grovers To Meet Saturday

Grove City Quintet Will Invade Slippery Rock For Floor Battle

GROVE CITY, Jan. 19.—The district's newest and warmest rivalry breaks out anew Saturday evening at Slippery Rock, when Grove City and the Rockets are due to match skill on the basketball court. The dopesters are at a loss to pick a favorite, and the game is expected to pack the Slippery Rock gym to the rafters.

Records fail to show that Slippery Rock has ever defeated Grove City at basketball, but since the schools renewed relations three years ago, all games have been close. Tied only by Grove City in its football victory, the Rockets have been pointed for this game since the season opened, and have their best chance in years to defeat the Crimson.

Grove City's strenuous battle with Waynesburg was no reason for a let-up in practice, and the Grovers are hard at work preparing for the Rockets. Every department of the Crimson play showed improvement in the Jacket game except shooting accuracy, and Coach Thorn planned a long drill to correct this fault.

Besemer Girls Are Undefeated
In County Have Appeared Incorrect

Besemer High girls basketball team is undefeated this year, notwithstanding the fact that two defeats against them have been chalked up on the sport pages. The reports given to The News were in error and the Besemer girls are putting up a holier.

It seems that the Besemer girls defeated the New Wilmington girls 29 to 19 on the night on January 9, and that the Besemer girls defeated the Mt. Jackson girls at Mt. Jackson this week 25 to 19, and both of these games were reported as having been lost by Besemer. The Besemer girls are headed for the girls championship of Lawrence County.

Marchy Schwartz Goes To Chicago
Former Notre Dame Star Will Be Assistant Coach At Chicago In Fall

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Clark Shaughnessy, head football coach of the University of Chicago, today welcomed the acquisition of Marchmont Schwartz, former Notre Dame triple threat star, as his chief assistant.

Managers of teams which held franchises last season and who wish to hold franchises this season in the Lawrence County Baseball League are scheduled to meet at 7 p. m. January 25, at the Sport Goods Store. It is said that should the league be reorganized this season each team will be required to put up a healthy forfeit.

Levinsky May Meet Carnera

King Levinsky Has Pushed Schemling And Baer Out Of Picture Is Reported

SCHMELING-BAER MAY MEET AGAIN

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The annual meeting of the Push-around A. C. was held here yesterday, with the result that Max Baer is not to meet Primo Carnera, the heavyweight champion, except maybe by chance on a street corner. Meantime, King Levinsky, who came here to persuade Max Schmeling to meet him, may instead meet Carnera for the title, leaving Schmeling and Baer nothing to do. So they'll meet each other in a re-play, so to speak, probably in San Francisco March 17.

Refuses To Sign
This is all so very confusing to the laity that only a boxing man could appreciate it. In fact, only a boxing man could do it. Everybody was in there trying to cross the other and, when it was all over, this is approximately what the testimony showed:

First, Anell Hoffman refused to sign Baer to a long-term lease with Madison Square Garden, believing some off-the-record assurances from the Carnera people that they would do business with him after their own contract expired September 30. In other words, he thought he had an ace in the hole. At the close of the day, he still had the hole.

As Hoffman was going into President Kilpatrick's office, he met the Carnera people coming out. Even the credulous Mr. Hoffman didn't need any more than that.

Get Two Contracts
Enter next the Levinskys of Chicago. They were so anxious to persuade Schmeling to reconsider a match that they came on with Nate Lewis, Chicago stadium promoter, to add their voices to his. They are, in fact, understood to have been Nate's guests on the trip east but they're broad-minded. They'll pay their own way back.

For when they go, a contract for two fights at Madison Square Garden will go with them; also the understanding that if Levinsky beats Charley Massera, February 9, and Walter Heusel, the German, March 2, he'll be in there fighting for the title in June.

So it's probably to be the old lineup all over again, with everybody against Schmeling and Baer, and Schmeling and Baer against each other. In other words, the old Push-around A. C. had another class reunion and everything was just splendid. To Mr. Joe Jacobs, who has been pushed by specialists, the experience was no novelty. He even pushes himself sometimes, just to feel natural.

Bobby Jones Is To Play Again

Jones Will Meet Cream Of Professional And Amateur Golfers At Atlanta, March 2

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Sports Writer

(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)
ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 19.—Bobby Jones, retired emperor of the links, will definitely return to the golfing wars this winter.

But this time he'll be out for fun instead of blood.

Bobby, in announcing his emergence from retirement in an exclusive interview today with International News Service, wants it distinctly understood, however, that he isn't staging a "come-back" attempt. He hasn't changed his mind since he hung up his clubs three years ago and said that the sweets of victory were just sour grapes under the nerve wracking strain of title play.

"I don't want to go through that again," Bobby said.

To Play March 2
He will dig out his trusty putter, Calamity Jane, and his other championship sticks and fare forth on his own Augusta national links, March 2 to pit his skill against the cream of the world's professional and amateur golfers for the first time since he tucked them away in September, 1930.

But his return to competition probably will be only a brief interlude in his retirement. He says he has no ambitions again to compete for the national open championship and has no plans for entering any other tournament.

Blair Strip Steel To Be Party Hosts

Runners-up In Golf League Will Have Charge Of Program At Muny Party

Members of the Blair Strip Steel team, who were runners-up in the New Castle Golf League race last summer, will be hosts at the golfers party to be held at the Muny Course clubhouse next Wednesday evening.

Arrangements for the party are already well in hand. "Tucker" Nolan of the Blair Strip Steel team stated today, and an enjoyable evening is promised.

These parties, which were inaugurated at the close of the golf season last fall, have proven interesting to the golfers of the city, and a record crowd is expected to be on hand next Wednesday evening at the Muny clubhouse.

KROGERS WIN GAME

Former Resident Report No Damage Done Their Property By California Flood

(By WILLIAM A. JOHNS)
(BRYTHON)

Word has come to the friends at New Castle from the former New Castle people living in California, informing that they are safe and their property without damage from the flood which occurred recently. The niece of Brython and her family are making their home at Rendon Beach.

The national eisteddfod of Wales will be held this year in a town named Neath, five miles from Port Talbot, where the eisteddfod was held in the year 1932. That event was attended by Mr. and Mrs. William R. Thomas and two daughters of Delaware avenue. No doubt that a good many of the Welsh-Americans will attend this one. A ladies choir from Canada is going over there this year.

A song service will be held at the Emmanuel Baptist church next Sunday evening when the leading singers of the church and Sunday school will take part.

Thomas Edwards and his family of Pico, Cal., will celebrate Mr. Edwards' 70th birthday on the 18th of next month and all his friends in New Castle plan to remember him with a birthday card.

Ellwood To Meet
New Castle HighBlue And White Will Invade
Tin City For Battle With Section Leaders

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 19.—Ellwood City High eagles will invade New Castle tonight for a battle with Coach Phil Bridenbaugh's Section 3 leaders at the George Washington Junior High gym.

Entering the game as the under dogs, the Benedict coached quintet is determined to give the red and black clad passers a real game. The cats have been rehearsing all week on means to get through New Castle's sterling zone defense. Coach Benedict has a good passing combination which is developing with every game. Despite all the advance predictions it will be hard fought game. New Castle will be striving to keep its slate clean and the Ellwoodians will be making an effort to win their first section game.

Coach Benedict is expected to start the same line-up he has used in the past several games. Ruback and Madden will be at the forwards, Lamento at the pivot position, Captain Bunney and Vandrell at the guards. New Castle's line-up will probably have Battley and Ridley at the forwards, Kelly at center, Captain Reiber and Kominic at the guards.

Income Returns Will Be Scanned

Income Tax Returns Filed
By Walter F. Brown And
Glover Will Be Probed

PERSONAL FILES
WERE DESTROYED

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Income tax returns made by former Postmaster General Walter F. Brown and former Assistant Postmaster General W. Irving Glover, covering a number of years, today were in the hands of the senate committee investigating air mail contracts.

Brown and Glover are central figures in a steadily growing scandal involving charges of favoritism and graft and admitted destruction of records dealing with air mail awards made during the Hoover regime.

The committee sought to obtain itemized lists of securities mentioned in the income tax returns of the two men.

May Call Glover
Glover faced the prospect of a severe grilling, probably next Tuesday. Senator Black (D) of Alabama, committee chairman, planned to question him concerning the bonfire at which four sacks of air mail correspondence were destroyed.

Both Brown and Glover burned their "personal" aid mail files shortly before they quit office in 1933. With hearings recessed until Tuesday, the committee delved into new episodes in the spectacular moves by which four huge companies, apparently interlocking, grabbed nearly all the air mail subsidies.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Jan. 19.—U. S. Senator David A. ## BANK FOUND SPRAGUE A RELIABLE CLIENT

(International News Service)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 19.—To officials of one small Cambridge bank, O. M. W. Sprague was just another man seeking to enter into a small transaction, so they wrote to another bank given by Sprague as reference. They received back a reply that Sprague was a professor of banking and finance at Harvard, had served as financial adviser to the Bank of England two years ago, is now chief economic adviser to the United States treasury, and that he was considered a "reliable client."
